

NEWS FROM POINTS AROUND

CINCINNATI.

County Court is in session to-day at Independence.

Patience Jones delivered a really very pretty and finished discourse yesterday.

Mr. Bowman has written a card denying that the committed adultery with Lathrop.

Colonel W. L. Grant left yesterday for Washington, D. C., to attend the opening of Congress.

There is a lot of carpenter tools at the Marshall's office, which the owner can have by identifying them.

Miss Emma Weaver tendered a number of her friends a musicale at her residence on Madison street last night.

St. Patrick was a gentleman. So will that young son of Henry Linneman be a gentleman twenty years hence from to-day.

The funeral of Mr. Lintbush took place this morning from Mother of God Church, and was attended by a large concourse of relatives and sympathetic friends.

Those desiring to have a good evening's fun should attend the entertainment at St. Mary's Hall tonight. If the actors fail to entertain you, the congregation will.

Mr. David C. Richardson, the son of Mr. Josiah Richardson, Superintendent of the Hemminger Glass-works, is at home again from a visit to his relatives in the East.

The two-story brick house belonging to the estate of the late John Sommer was sold at Master Conner's sale this morning.

J. B. Brinker was the purchaser at $3,750.

Mr. W. H. Turner, Grand Recorder of the A. O. U. W. of Kentucky, left last night for Nashville to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge of the United States in that city to-morrow.

Police Court.—Robert Smith, James Thompson and General Ruckers, drunk, $5 each. The latter was arrested yesterday by Officer O'Hara, and Ruckers tried to convince O'Hara that he was a Dutchman. Mike denied in this morning on account of it being St. Patrick's Day.

Tid Williams and Billy Flynn, while crossing Licking River in a skiff yesterday had a narrow escape from drowning. The bottom of the boat fell out, and both were precipitated into the river, and for the timely assistance of the bystanders on the bank, would have drowned.

Edward Armstrong, who is in the field for Sheriff, also Mr. McNamara, Geo. H. Hartley and several others, but put them all in a pot and boiled them to a pulp and re-produced them from a pair of mounds and they could not begin to equal Mr. Henry S. Pennington in true worth, modest merit, intellect and unswerving and life-long fidelity to serve the public in the capacity of Sheriff. His case will not have to be carried from court to court, either, about giving a proper and substantial bond.

At a recent breakfast at St. Mary's Hall was crowded last night with people to witness the Emerald Dramatic Club in their third bow to the public. Flattering indeed was the reception they received and well merited was the applause. The play presented was the beautiful drama "Among the Breakers," with the following cast of characters:

David Murray, keeper of Flat Point Light.—Mr. Dan Kinsley.

Mr. Bruce Hunter.—Mr. Owen.

Clarence Hunter, his wife.—Mr. Jos. Maloney.

Peter Parrington, a newspaper reporter.—Mr. Jno. Cook.

Larry Dwyer, Murray's assistant.—Mr. John Kinsley.

Sold, Hunter-colored servant.—Mr. Chas. Grant.

Miss Minnie Davis, Hunter's niece.—Miss Annie Finley.

Reed Starbuck, capt. up by the waves.—Miss Hannah Murphy.

Mother Carey, a reputed fortune-teller.—Miss Julia Harkin.

Buddy Hunt, Murray's servant.—Miss Lizzy Burt.

The lady characters were well not mentioned, through a delicacy that ladies have of seeing their names in print, but suffice to say that they all took their parts well, in that modest and unassuming manner which makes private theatricals so much admired. If there is no that deserves special mention it is Miss Hannah Murphy, who performed her part to perfection and with the ease and grace of a professional actress.

The Kingsley Brothers, in their respective parts, acquitted themselves in a most meritorious manner, and their friends had not misplaced their confidence in the parts assigned them. Charles Grant, as the negro servant, elicited considerable applause by his cool, modest and dignified manner.

The newspaper-paraphraser, expounded headlines like an old-time professional. Maloney and Sheridan, in their difficult parts, were good, and deserve credit. The play was well acted to the end, and those who desire to witness a special entertainment and help a charitable cause, besides encouraging home talent, should not fail to attend. Rev. Father Jones was on hand last night, and with his usual courtesy extended a cordial welcome to the large audience.

NEWPORT.

Details of the Highland Fling in our local columns.

Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott are visiting friends in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The weather had a stimulating effect on Ohio people in Kentucky last night.

The Circuit and Criminal Courts convene to-day at Alexandria under Judge Boyd.

Miss Ella Davis, of Xenia, Ohio, is the guest of Miss Laura Williams, of Cabot street.

The Ladies' Aid Society will give a grand supper and fair at the Y. M. C. W. Hall, New York, 25th, 26th and 27th of this month.

The Overseer of the Poor during the past week has distributed to the needy thirty bushels of coal and $73 worth of groceries.

Jerry Schirmer, a stable-boy in the employ of C. K. Harris, Esq., of Ringgold street, yesterday suffered a compound fracture of the left leg.

Mr. James Wallace was the recipient by this morning of a beautiful shawl which came all the way from the green hills of Tipperary.

The feast of St. Patrick is passing off very quietly in Newport. The Hibernians attended the 6 o'clock Mass at the Church of the Immaculate Conception in a body.

Both the Dayton dummies ran out of coal at this end of the route last night, and the residents of Bellevue and Dayton were obliged to plan their way home through the wet and snow and blinding sleet. This is an outrage and the authorities should look to it.

SUNDAY DRINKS.—The following young men who attended the matinee last evening were taken in shortly after their arrival home for being too full of booze and trying to get up another excitement: Barney Walsh, George Elliott, Henry Davis, Ben. Fry and George Morrow. Judge Burton let them off with $1 and costs each this morning.

Last night, about nine o'clock, Captain John A. Williamson, Superintendent of the Newport-street Railroad Company, was attacked by two men, who were considerably under the influence of liquor, and most brutally assaulted.

County Court.—The last will of W. P. English, with F. J. Immeigart and W. F. Fuller as witnesses, was probated.

Henry Weaver was granted a tavern license for the Five Mile House, on Licking pike.

Law Meyer was granted a tavern license for the White House, on Alexandria pike.

Nicholas Abel, an alien, declared his intention of becoming a citizen of these glorious United States.

Michael Monahan was granted an additional eight days to furnish additional security as administrator of Patrick Monahan, deceased.

Helen Hodgson filed a settlement as guardian of her minor children.

LEXINGTON, KY.

Wolf & Frost's Cornet Band were out Friday night serenading some of their numerous admirers.

A silver wedding may be witnessed by the interested friends of Jacob Stahl by calling at his residence on the 24th inst.

The down train on the Mayville Road on Friday evening ran over and killed a valuable cow belonging to a farmer near Johnson's Station.

Our little editor of the Transcript, Ben. Deering, is a candidate for Representative of Lexington, subject to a decision in primary election.

Bryant, Hardesty & Co. have made the Cincinnati Southern Railroad Company for nearly $500 for rebate charges for freight as per contract.

Died, on the morning of the 14th inst., of cholera, Little Dennis Dineen, infant son of James S. and Kate H. Perkins, in the third year of his age.

Col. Cal. Morgan, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the Common Council, has saved the city near $20 per year by borrowing the money which the city would have had to pay for the same in less than one year, than she has formerly paid.

There is a nuisance to be witnessed on our streets that is never heard of in other cities. The custom of horse breaking is very common and likewise very dangerous. While our streets are thronged with men, women and children, the wildest horses are trained upon our public squares. It would be well for the proper officers to stop this custom before heavy damages are assessed against our city.

The entertainment at Hamilton College on Friday evening was extremely entertaining. The meeting was called to order by Miss Annie Dwyer, as President of the Philomathean Society. After Prayer Miss Anna Troop, Secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting. In the meantime the songs and the artistic performances upon the piano were listened to, highly appreciated and applauded, and justly deserved. Then followed the essay of Miss Minnie Smith, which was excellent, as well as a proof of her talent. The meeting then adjourned.

DAYTON, OH.

Perhaps some other humor wants to promenade on the Highlands.

Dr. Schofield will devote his services to a very sick man, named Kline, on the Highlands to-day.

Mr. Henry Hackmann, of Rhensford street, is putting an addition to his house.

Quite a number of young ladies got badly left yesterday afternoon. The dummies played out and walking was bad.

Two young bloods of Dayton got into a dispute on Fairview avenue on Saturday over the great walking match. Friends separated them before much damage was done. Too much booze was the cause.

A German lady and three children, who reside in the upper part of town, presented a pitiable sight yesterday afternoon coming from Newport. The mother carried a babe in her arms, while two others, a boy and a girl, walked crying most bitterly from exposure to the cold and stormy weather.

CLEVELAND.

Our village people were agreeably entertained Friday night by the Mount Nebo neighbors in the way of a school exhibition under the management of our distinguished fellow-townsmen, S. Kyle Stephens, who is at present the teacher of the Mount Nebo public school. The exercises consisted of songs, choruses, recitations, dialogues, readings and tableaux, and were executed with such skill as to greatly redound to the credit of the participants and please the audience, especially the parents of the little ones who were most prominently in the entertainment.

SPORTING NEWS.

HOW IT WEST.

New York, March 17.—Horse made his first start in the morning at 10 o'clock Saturday night, and his first hundred and forty-fourth at 10 o'clock, and Harrison his four hundred and fiftieth at 10 o'clock. Total receipts of the contest $21,000. The house was laid out for the D. & M. track, a freight train passing a few moments later out in two, but were promptly replaced and fire extinguished. The house was almost entirely destroyed. Loss about $1,000. No injuries.

Owing to the inclement weather, Prof. Carpenter at Music Hall, Sunday night, was not greeted with as large an audience as his lecture and experiments on "Psychology" merited, but it appeared highly appreciated and the Professor has been invited to repeat the same on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

HOME CITY.

Mass Andrews in days gone by was a medium.

The spook left our village at 10 a. m. Sunday.

A frisky "flat" from Fern Bank saw a dollar's worth.

Woodruff is a sham spook. It would be rough if his neighbors found it out.

Incorporation or no incorporation, the season for seances is perpetually closed.

It is reported that at the last circus the spirits fed Gullion with ginger-bread. It is a lie.

The singing was villainous. It requires the lungs and talent of Home City to do the subject justice.

Captain Parker would make a good ghost, but he quits on the first quarter-stretch and won't train any longer.

Home City isn't high-toned enough for a good manager. They must needs call upon Fern Bank for an audience.

Here's the list so far as accounted for: Frank McDuffie, D. M. Higgins, Woodruff, Green, Stanton, Crowley, Magness, Cook, Huntington, Windsor, Tullock, etc.

Some wicked person struck John Talbot (thinking it was Billy Patterson) with a burning Saturday night. It was quite dark, and John, after recovering his wits, shortly after the burning of his spooks. He should take it in his head-hitch.

Leighton, Lindsey, Foley, Basset, Robinson, Neman, Mitchell, Dunley, Gottschalk, Laffer, Adriance and several others should be marked by our voters at the spring election. They don't patronize home enterprises. Neither of them could handle the great "spook" of Saturday evening.

SPRINGFIELD, O.

Gilmore's Band, Opera-house, Friday evening, March 25th.

The 25th Band paraded on Saturday night. Don't think it a "roy."

Frank W. Heffernan, of the Boston Grocery, is visiting his Indiana friends.

The Champion City Orchestra furnish ten pieces of music for the Firemen's Ball to-night.

Daniel Teach, a Saturday night "celebrated" spent Sunday with Leach, of the Springfield Hotel.

Henry Harper will spend the next ten days in the hills. Henry's "hill" was a pair of pants.

Occupation, doctor—name, A. M. Potter—new arrival, a little lady—weight, standard. Happy? Well—yes.

Enall Nuditt, for violation of Sunday ordinances, was fined $10 and costs in the Mayor's Court on Saturday.

Matrimonial whippers—Jas. Marshall and Susan Fields were granted a license, as were two others ordered not published.

The variety performance at Funks' Hall Saturday night was a success. So the boys vote it. "Loud" Yes, muchly.

Oh, no, Thomas Clayton was not arrested as a disorderly, of course not, but his name is on the Police dock, all the same.

John Wren, Esq., of Wren & O'Brien, left for New York to-day. His trip is a business one, with a little flavor of pleasure.

Scott Franklin and Louis Reubaker are again in the cage, this time for $400

drunks. Everybody's wish—keep them there.

Mr. Jas. A. Roman, of the firm of H. E. Alexander & Co., has gone East to attend the late sale of fine teas in New York March 16th.

John McGarr, of Center street, wound up his protracted spree by setting run into the Leach headquarters Saturday night. Just let John sober up for a few days.

The railroad ties between this point and Cincinnati will suffer this week when heavily pressed by the defunct German actors who were put in the hole here.

The Champion City Combination performed at City Hall on Saturday night to a fair house. The performance was above the average for amateurs, each act being heartily enjoyed.

John Pignarity, an employee in the Knife and Bar Works, was badly cut in the head on Saturday afternoon by being hit with a sharp-pointed stone, thrown by some unseen hand. It's a shame, so is.

A company of the little folks was tendered a party on Friday evening by C. C. Boyer, Esq., Superintendent of the Knife and Bar Works, and the little folks took the same in with a relish, and thus was a generous host made happy.

John McDermott and Wm. Donnelly had a dispute Saturday night in an East End saloon. Now Donnelly don't dispute the assertion that he received a damaged head, or that they soared to the station-house with Officer Foster.

John W. Longley, a rural chap, and Chas. H. Berry, a would-be legal adviser of this city, after words over a business transaction placed in Berry's hands by Longley, came to blows in the hall-way of Slick's building on Main street, Saturday morning. Longley was knocked down and violently injured, and Berry was arrested, and will be tried on Tuesday.

The "heads" of the Nichols and "Carmen" families, of Main street, came together Saturday night. The issue was to settle the question of "imposition." They settled it. That is, Adam Nichols did, by striking Nichols' men on the head with a hammer. Later in the evening a warrant for "assault with intent to kill" was taken out, and soon after Nichols was arrested and escorted to jail.

DAYTON, OH.

Perhaps some other humor wants to promenade on the Highlands.

Dr. Schofield will devote his services to a very sick man, named Kline, on the Highlands to-day.

Mr. Henry Hackmann, of Rhensford street, is putting an addition to his house.

Quite a number of young ladies got badly left yesterday afternoon. The dummies played out and walking was bad.

Two young bloods of Dayton got into a dispute on Fairview avenue on Saturday over the great walking match. Friends separated them before much damage was done. Too much booze was the cause.

A German lady and three children, who reside in the upper part of town, presented a pitiable sight yesterday afternoon coming from Newport. The mother carried a babe in her arms, while two others, a boy and a girl, walked crying most bitterly from exposure to the cold and stormy weather.

CLEVELAND.

Our village people were agreeably entertained Friday night by the Mount Nebo neighbors in the way of a school exhibition under the management of our distinguished fellow-townsmen, S. Kyle Stephens, who is at present the teacher of the Mount Nebo public school. The exercises consisted of songs, choruses, recitations, dialogues, readings and tableaux, and were executed with such skill as to greatly redound to the credit of the participants and please the audience, especially the parents of the little ones who were most prominently in the entertainment.

SPORTING NEWS.

HOW IT WEST.

New York, March 17.—Horse made his first start in the morning at 10 o'clock Saturday night, and his first hundred and forty-fourth at 10 o'clock, and Harrison his four hundred and fiftieth at 10 o'clock. Total receipts of the contest $21,000. The house was laid out for the D. & M. track, a freight train passing a few moments later out in two, but were promptly replaced and fire extinguished. The house was almost entirely destroyed. Loss about $1,000. No injuries.

Owing to the inclement weather, Prof. Carpenter at Music Hall, Sunday night, was not greeted with as large an audience as his lecture and experiments on "Psychology" merited, but it appeared highly appreciated and the Professor has been invited to repeat the same on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

HOME CITY.

Mass Andrews in days gone by was a medium.

The spook left our village at 10 a. m. Sunday.

A frisky "flat" from Fern Bank saw a dollar's worth.

Woodruff is a sham spook. It would be rough if his neighbors found it out.

Incorporation or no incorporation, the season for seances is perpetually closed.

It is reported that at the last circus the spirits fed Gullion with ginger-bread. It is a lie.

The singing was villainous. It requires the lungs and talent of Home City to do the subject justice.

Captain Parker would make a good ghost, but he quits on the first quarter-stretch and won't train any longer.

Home City isn't high-toned enough for a good manager. They must needs call upon Fern Bank for an audience.

Here's the list so far as accounted for: Frank McDuffie, D. M. Higgins, Woodruff, Green, Stanton, Crowley, Magness, Cook, Huntington, Windsor, Tullock, etc.

Some wicked person struck John Talbot (thinking it was Billy Patterson) with a burning Saturday night. It was quite dark, and John, after recovering his wits, shortly after the burning of his spooks. He should take it in his head-hitch.

Leighton, Lindsey, Foley, Basset, Robinson, Neman, Mitchell, Dunley, Gottschalk, Laffer, Adriance and several others should be marked by our voters at the spring election. They don't patronize home enterprises. Neither of them could handle the great "spook" of Saturday evening.

SPRINGFIELD, O.

Gilmore's Band, Opera-house, Friday evening, March 25th.

The 25th Band paraded on Saturday night. Don't think it a "roy."

Frank W. Heffernan, of the Boston Grocery, is visiting his Indiana friends.

The Champion City Orchestra furnish ten pieces of music for the Firemen's Ball to-night.

Daniel Teach, a Saturday night "celebrated" spent Sunday with Leach, of the Springfield Hotel.

Henry Harper will spend the next ten days in the hills. Henry's "hill" was a pair of pants.

Occupation, doctor—name, A. M. Potter—new arrival, a little lady—weight, standard. Happy? Well—yes.

Enall Nuditt, for violation of Sunday ordinances, was fined $10 and costs in the Mayor's Court on Saturday.

Matrimonial whippers—Jas. Marshall and Susan Fields were granted a license, as were two others ordered not published.

The variety performance at Funks' Hall Saturday night was a success. So the boys vote it. "Loud" Yes, muchly.

Oh, no, Thomas Clayton was not arrested as a disorderly, of course not, but his name is on the Police dock, all the same.

John Wren, Esq., of Wren & O'Brien, left for New York to-day. His trip is a business one, with a little flavor of pleasure.

Scott Franklin and Louis Reubaker are again in the cage, this time for $400

drunks. Everybody's wish—keep them there.

Mr. Jas. A. Roman, of the firm of H. E. Alexander & Co., has gone East to attend the late sale of fine teas in New York March 16th.

John McGarr, of Center street, wound up his protracted spree by setting run into the Leach headquarters Saturday night. Just let John sober up for a few days.

The railroad ties between this point and Cincinnati will suffer this week when heavily pressed by the defunct German actors who were put in the hole here.

The Champion City Combination performed at City Hall on Saturday night to a fair house. The performance was above the average for amateurs, each act being heartily enjoyed.

John Pignarity, an employee in the Knife and Bar Works, was badly cut in the head on Saturday afternoon by being hit with a sharp-pointed stone, thrown by some unseen hand. It's a shame, so is.

A company of the little folks was tendered a party on Friday evening by C. C. Boyer, Esq., Superintendent of the Knife and Bar Works, and the little folks took the same in with a relish, and thus was a generous host made happy.

John McDermott and Wm. Donnelly had a dispute Saturday night in an East End saloon. Now Donnelly don't dispute the assertion that he received a damaged head, or that they soared to the station-house with Officer Foster.

John W. Longley, a rural chap, and Chas. H. Berry, a would-be legal adviser of this city, after words over a business transaction placed in Berry's hands by Longley, came to blows in the hall-way of Slick's building on Main street, Saturday morning. Longley was knocked down and violently injured, and Berry was arrested, and will be tried on Tuesday.

The "heads" of the Nichols and "Carmen" families, of Main street, came together Saturday night. The issue was to settle the question of "imposition." They settled it. That is, Adam Nichols did, by striking Nichols' men on the head with a hammer. Later in the evening a warrant for "assault with intent to kill" was taken out, and soon after Nichols was arrested and escorted to jail.

DAYTON, OH.

Perhaps some other humor wants to promenade on the Highlands.

Dr. Schofield will devote his services to a very sick man, named Kline, on the Highlands to-day.

Mr. Henry Hackmann, of Rhensford street, is putting an addition to his house.

Quite a number of young ladies got badly left yesterday afternoon. The dummies played out and walking was bad.

Two young bloods of Dayton got into a dispute on Fairview avenue on Saturday over the great walking match. Friends separated them before much damage was done. Too much booze was the cause.

A German lady and three children, who reside in the upper part of town, presented a pitiable sight yesterday afternoon coming from Newport. The mother carried a babe in her arms, while two others, a boy and a girl, walked crying most bitterly from exposure to the cold and stormy weather.

CLEVELAND.

Our village people were agreeably entertained Friday night by the Mount Nebo neighbors in the way of a school exhibition under the management of our distinguished fellow-townsmen, S. Kyle Stephens, who is at present the teacher of the Mount Nebo public school. The exercises consisted of songs, choruses, recitations, dialogues, readings and tableaux, and were executed with such skill as to greatly redound to the credit of the participants and please the audience, especially the parents of the little ones who were most prominently in the entertainment.

SPORTING NEWS.

HOW IT WEST.

New York, March 17.—Horse made his first start in the morning at 10 o'clock Saturday night, and his first hundred and forty-fourth at 10 o'clock, and Harrison his four hundred and fiftieth at 10 o'clock. Total receipts of the contest $21,000. The house was laid out for the D. & M. track, a freight train passing a few moments later out in two, but were promptly replaced and fire extinguished. The house was almost entirely destroyed. Loss about $1,000. No injuries.

Owing to the inclement weather, Prof. Carpenter at Music Hall, Sunday night, was not greeted with as large an audience as his lecture and experiments on "Psychology" merited, but it appeared highly appreciated and the Professor has been invited to repeat the same on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

HOME CITY.

Mass Andrews in days gone by was a medium.

The spook left our village at 10 a. m. Sunday.

A frisky "flat" from Fern Bank saw a dollar's worth.

Woodruff is a sham spook. It would be rough if his neighbors found it out.

Incorporation or no incorporation, the season for seances is perpetually closed.

It is reported that at the last circus the spirits fed Gullion with ginger-bread. It is a lie.

The singing was villainous. It requires the lungs and talent of Home City to do the subject justice.

Captain Parker would make a good ghost, but he quits on the first quarter-stretch and won't train any longer.

Home City isn't high-toned enough for a good manager. They must needs call upon Fern Bank for an audience.

Here's the list so far as accounted for: Frank McDuffie, D. M. Higgins, Woodruff, Green, Stanton, Crowley, Magness, Cook, Huntington, Windsor, Tullock, etc.

Some wicked person struck John Talbot (thinking it was Billy Patterson) with a burning Saturday night. It was quite dark, and John, after recovering his wits, shortly after the burning of his spooks. He should take it in his head-hitch.

Leighton, Lindsey, Foley, Basset, Robinson, Neman, Mitchell, Dunley, Gottschalk, Laffer, Adriance and several others should be marked by our voters at the spring election. They don't patronize home enterprises. Neither of them could handle the great "spook" of Saturday evening.

SPRINGFIELD, O.

Gilmore's Band, Opera-house, Friday evening, March 25th.

The 25th Band paraded on Saturday night. Don't think it a "roy."

Frank W. Heffernan, of the Boston Grocery, is visiting his Indiana friends.

The Champion City Orchestra furnish ten pieces of music for the Firemen's Ball to-night.

Daniel Teach, a Saturday night "celebrated" spent Sunday with Leach, of the Springfield Hotel.

Henry Harper will spend the next ten days in the hills. Henry's "hill" was a pair of pants.